

The Facilitator's Guide to Immersive, Blended and Hybrid Learning by Cindy Huggett, CPTD Book Club Discussion Guide

- 1 What's your reaction to the new "Learning Experience Facilitator" role as explained in Ch. 1? For what reason(s)?

- 2 Do you agree with the sentiment on page 4 that designers should be well-versed in delivery techniques, and vice versa? Why or why not?

- 3 Which relationship-building techniques have you/will you use with your virtual class participants (pages 55-56)

- 4 Reflect on the section "Release Control to Participants" (pages 63-65). How can you Share Airtime & Allow Choice?

- 5 Which hybrid learning roles (pages 80-81) would help your hybrid classes be more successful?

- 6 Which of the three hybrid facilitation techniques on page 90 have you used? What else would you add to this list?

- 7 What opportunities do you have to incorporate augmented reality (AR) into your learning programs?

- 8 Which type of VR Facilitator (Simulation Sage or Active Agent) will be most relevant to you? (pages 166-169)

Bonus Question:

Which techniques from Chapter 8 will you use to stay current as a facilitator of the future?
